Dedication

A MAN whose counsel and guidance have been sought and heeded by all of us—a man who has given himself to Bryant College and its students—Dean Elmer C. Wilbur. It is not possible to write a dedication to a man whose life is the very essence of dedicating instead we quote, "He can always be succeeded, but he can never be replaced".

DR. HENRY LOEB JACOBS
President

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN once said something to the effect that an investment in knowledge always pays the best dividend. And now you, the Bryant graduate, after two years of intensive study are ready to put that investment to the test.

The times are unsettled. There are problems ahead. But you, as well-trained personnel, are qualified for the civilian or military responsibilities which face America today. Because all the human virtues we prize, all the goals toward which we work depend on education.

The education you have received here at Bryant College should prepare you for the realities of today. You go forth enriched by the friendships and the associations you have formed these past two years. My blessings go with you together with an earnest wish for the strength of character, which is the bedrock of a happy and useful life.

A handwritten signature in cursive script, reading "Hugh Jacob". The signature is written in dark ink and is positioned in the lower right quadrant of the page.

Secretary	Frances Almonte
Treasurer	Anthony Neves

Through the persistent efforts of this industrious group and because they have given tirelessly of their free time in arranging the large number of Senate sponsored activities, the Student Senate has successfully completed its third year as the governing body on the Bryant Campus . . . Not only is the Senate concerned with the everyday student problems, but they have also been trying to instill in the student body the aims of honest government by practicing the theory that everyone, no matter how big or small shall and will be heard . . . Freshmen activities this past fall were more triumphant than in any previous year . . . One of the biggest contributions that was made by the Senate was the Student Loan Fund. Another was the Blood Drive, for which one hundred pints of blood were raised. Library Fund was swelled by gifts and money raised.

ALPHA PHI KAPPA

Alpha Phi Kappa, though it is one of the youngest sororities on campus, has proven its ability to cope with its illustrious sister sororities in sponsoring dances of high caliber. The two dances sponsored by the sorority, one on November 4, and the other on April 21, were very successful . . . The pledgee formals were held with their brother fraternity, Kappa Tau . . . This year their president, Patricia McDonald was honored to be chosen Snow Queen at the annual Snow Queen Ball.

Although Sigma Lambda Theta is the oldest sorority on campus, it cannot be accused of developing a case of old age. Active interest in campus activities and strong school standing have always been the outstanding virtues of this sorority . . . The annual Carnival Dance sponsored by Theta was its usual success . . . In collaboration with Beta Sigma Chi, they took second prize in Stunt Night with "The Shooting of Dan McGrew." (We might add that Dan never had a more exciting murder.) . . . Theta also was one of the four sororities taking part in the 1950-51 basketball season. The Pledgee Formal, the high point of Theta's social season, was held at the Eagles Hall.

The twelfth year of activity for Beta Sigma Gamma was marked by a most unusual dance held on November 18, "The Turkey Trot." During this dance a truly unique contest was held for all those who could dance the turkey trot. It was fun not only to dance, but also to watch the contestants put their all into their efforts to win . . . Early in the semester a very successful formal was held jointly with Sigma Lambda Pi, their brother fraternity, at the Wayland Manor. A tea for the pledges also marked the social calendar of this very active sorority.

Although Kappa Delta Kappa was once a national sorority, its activities are now confined to the campus, where it enjoys prominence among the members of the Greek Letter organization . . . This year the sorority held many activities with its brother fraternity, Tau Epsilon, such as the Pledgee formal at the Eagles' Home where the unique favors were presented, and the hay ride in the fall . . . An Alumni Chapter was started, and several joint meetings have been held . . . They have proved themselves to be enjoyable for both the alumni and active members.

Sigma Iota Beta is one of the few sport-conscious sororities here at Bryant College. It is one of four sororities who have sponsored a basketball team for the 1950-51 season. The players have shown both deft playing and excellent sportsmanship.

This sorority was the forerunner of the social season since it was the first organization to sponsor a dance in September. Their dance thus inaugurated the social season at Bryant College. A hay ride was held with Beta Iota Beta in the fall, and everyone who attended had a very good time.

Sigma Iota Chi, the only National sorority on campus, has experienced a very successful year. Their first honor was to win third prize by presenting "Black Magic" for Stunt Night. The sorority was very proud when one of their sisters, Betty Ann Flugel, tied for the College Snow Queen. In basketball they have scored over their opponents by a sizable margin to win the championship, thanks to their all-star, Ramona Moore . . . On January 13, the sorority, with their brother fraternity, Phi Sigma Nu, held its pledgee formal at the famous Ranch House. The sisters are looking forward to their dance, "The Crystal Ball"; the pledgee banquet; and the Mother Daughter banquet . . . May the girls of Sigma be as successful in years to come!

Truly the baby of sororities is Phi Upsilon, having been started only a few short months ago . . . This sorority has enjoyed the distinction of having Mrs. Henry L. Jacobs as its honorary member. . . Chi Gamma Iota is their brother fraternity, and they have had several parties together, such as the pledgee formal at the Ranch House and the beach parties this past summer . . . When a girl pledges Phi Upsilon, she vows that she will not harbor any prejudices as to race, religion, color, or resident or non-resident students.

Alpha Theta Chi, the "junior" fraternity here at Bryant, has proven its ability to cope with older and more established campus organizations. This year they became a three-time winner with their capture of one of the most coveted honors of the school year. They have had the honor of sponsoring the reigning Carnival Queen, May Queen, and Snow Queen . . . The fraternity has taken an active part in the sports calendar of the year. The improving skill and good sportsmanship of Alpha Theta Chi has helped it to take its place with the other fraternities of athletic note . . . Their dance, held on January twentieth, was one of the most successful dances of the year.

Simpson, J. Halpin, J. Ceplocha, S. Canestrari, D. Gordan, J. McKean, R. Fogarty, L. Conley, D. Colon.

BETA IOTA BETA

Beta Iota Beta has continued to practice its theory of "doing unto others as they would have done unto them" . . . They held a Christmas party for the underprivileged children of Providence and donated the money for the cheerleaders' sweaters. Actions such as these have earned for them the reputation of being one of the best in Bryant . . . They captured the intramural basketball league championship for the second year; and, therefore, have retained the trophy . . . The formals and beach parties were enjoyed by all, and the fraternity has prospered during a good year.

KAPPA TAU

Kappa Tau was founded on the principles of charity, work and good fellowship, and certainly the fraternity has practiced this philosophy. Without a doubt, they gave the biggest and best smoker on the campus for this year or any other year . . . Their interest in campus work and athletics has earned them the reputation they now wear today . . . Their dance in the fall was one of the biggest financial successes this year, and together with their sister sorority, Alpha Phi Kappa, they sponsored many affairs, such as beach parties, picnics, and dances. Kappa Tau can close the 1951 school year with much pride and progress.

BETA SIGMA CHI

It would seem that Beta Sigma Chi has all the actors in the school in their fraternity, for they again took a prize for their Stunt Night skit . . . But their prowesses are confined not only to the theatrical world, for they also made outstanding contributions to the intramural sports program and to the calendar of civic events planned by the Student Senate . . . The fraternity has been active in sending bulletins to their alumni throughout the past year and to those who have gone into the service they have sent newsletters . . . Beta Sigma Chi has a right to feel that they have closed the pages on a successful year.

CHI GAMMA IOTA

In the spirit of "there's only one place to go and that's forward," the fraternity conducted itself with outstanding virtue this year . . . They helped the Red Cross in their collections, and they were one of the first to contribute to the Student Loan Fund. They had a dinner-dance at the Ranch House, and several successful beach parties with their new sister sorority, Phi Upsilon. Chi Gamma was also honored this year to have as their honorary brother the President of the College, Dr. Henry L. Jacobs. Two new advisers were installed—Dean Elmer C. Wilbur and Mr. Earl Messer . . . Chi Gamma continued to enjoy prosperity with their dances and sponsored for the second year the "Birthday Ball."

PHI SIGMA NU

Once again Phi Sigma Nu is the only national fraternity on the campus, having been reactivated this past spring . . . The dances that Phi Sig sponsored this year were equal to those that their brothers had in previous years . . . Miss Betty Ann Flugel, a member of their sister sorority, Sigma Iota Chi, carried the colors of Phi Sig when she was crowned Snow Queen of 1951 . . . They were the first to contribute fifty dollars to the Student Senate Loan Fund . . . Their beach parties with their sister sorority were a success, especially the softball games . . . So with the strains of "Mary Margaret" the fraternity closes another successful year.

Sigma Lambda Pi, formerly a national fraternity, now operates under a state charter granted in 1936 . . . The frat has been more active this year than ever before, with smokers, dances, pledge parties, dinner dances, and the pledgee formal held at the Wayland Manor . . . The annual "Sno Ball" dance will be long remembered. Miss Patricia MacDonald, sponsored by Alpha Theta Chi, and Miss Betty Ann Flugel, sponsored by Phi Sigma Nu, were tied for queen. Our two queens reigned over the college Christmas Formal . . . The beach party with Beta Sigma Gamma, their sister sorority, finished a successful year.

TAU EPSILON

Tau Epsilon was off to a flying start this year in that they were the first fraternity to wear blazers. The blazers are maroon with the frat coat of arms on the pocket . . . They were the first to turn "Hell Week" into a social service. Pledgees were made to clean, paint, and redecorate the house of a needy family . . . This year the fraternity walked off with the bowling championship . . . Tau Ep's pledgee banquet was held at Lindy's Diner with all the faculty advisors and brothers enjoying the filet mignon . . . The highlight of this year was the initiation of Senator John O. Pastore and Governor Dennis J. Roberts into Tau Epsilon. Their two honorary members were installed at the 21st annual reunion held at the Sheraton-Biltmore in May.

BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION SOCIETY

Like its fellow technical society, The Accounting and Finance Society, The Business Administration Society invites men from the field of business to speak to them . . . The Society has had outstanding success in previous years, and this year was no exception. A plant manager, a credit investigator, and an advertising and promotion manager, were a few of the speakers who addressed the organization. The banquets are usually held at the Crown Hotel and of special note is the last banquet of the semester when members of the faculty are invited to make informal speeches to the seniors.

HILLEL

The Hillel Councilorship at Bryant College is a religious, cultural, social and athletic organization for the Jewish students on campus. Along with the Hillel chapters of Brown University and Rhode Island University, the Bryant chapter of Hillel sponsors Sunday morning and evening brunches at the Pembroke College Field House and the Bryant College Field House . . . These brunches serve as a means for students attending these colleges to get together and become better acquainted. Hillel sponsored several dances as well as many lectures and panel discussions with well-known speakers and moderators . . . Hillel has also been instrumental in forming the Inter-Faith Counsel of Bryant College.

This year the Newman Club maintained the pace set by their illustrious predecessors . . . Together with the Bryant Christian Association, The Canterbury Club, and the Hillel Foundation, The Newman Club organized the Inter-Faith Council. The prime purpose of this organization is to bring God more intimately into our lives . . . The regional meeting for 1951 of all the colleges in the New England states was held at Bryant College . . . The Newman Club has sponsored many speakers during the year, one of the most successful being Father Begley.

CHEERLEADERS

Top to bottom: F. Tashlik, B. Beech, J. Whitney, A. Wolf, F. Lindsay, M. Carpinelli, B. A. Bernstein.

To those unsung victors of the athletic world, the cheerleaders. Were it not for their endless and boundless enthusiasm many a game would be lost . . . This year the Cheerleaders re-organized the club and sponsored Wednesday night hops, rallies, and booster books . . . They bought new uniforms . . . Through the efforts of co-captains Fay Tashlik and Mary Carpinelli, and the entire team, the Cheerleaders brought credit not only to themselves, but to the entire college.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB

The second year of the International Relations Club saw much progress made. The club has increased in membership and has sponsored many programs for the student body . . . All the students of Bryant College whose home is in a foreign country spoke at a meeting on the political, economical, and social environment of his or her country . . . Dever Allen, one of the leading political counselors in the country, spoke to the student body at Bryant College as Bryant's part in World Affairs week . . . The I. R. C. has truly served its purpose, that of promoting study and discussion on international and national affairs among the members of the club.

FALL RIVER CLUB

The primary purpose of the organization is to foster relationships with present students and alumni living in the Fall River area . . . The club was organized in 1948 with that purpose in mind . . . The organization has held many social affairs this past year. The Christmas party was an outstanding success . . . The Fall River Club continues to prove its worth on campus with its representative in the Student Senate fostering and promoting such legislation as is beneficial to the entire student body as well as to his own particular group.

GREEK LETTER COUNCIL

The Greek Letter Council this year extended its aim of organizing freshman activities. Many activities were planned by the Council and enjoyed by the freshmen . . . The spirit of the new students was bolstered by the helpful attitude of the Council and was evidenced by a dance sponsored by the freshman class. The proceeds from this dance—$200—were donated to the Library Fund. . . . The Greek Letter Council also organized and ratified both their charter and constitution this year. This will form a firm basis for the future growth of the council . . . The annual Greek Letter Dance, held in the early spring was a thoroughly successful social event.

TENNIS

In its first campaign of collegiate competition, the varsity Tennis team compiled a truly brilliant record. The Indian netmen were victorious in seven contests while losing only twice, with both defeats coming at the hands of Stonehill College, this year's Conference Champions.

Five of the matches were won by way of the shutout route as the Indians added to their list of blanked opponents such teams as Uconn at Hartford, Bradford Durfee Tech, New Bedford Textile Institute, and Bridgewater State Teachers College twice.

Outstanding for the Orange and Black was the court work of Herb Haft and the steady play of the Donaghue brothers, Roger and John.

Thus, the first page of Bryant tennis history has been written in a victorious manner and will undoubtedly offer a challenge for future Indian tennis teams.

The fortunes of the Bryant Basketball Team rose once again to the high level which has characterized Indian quintets of past years. After dropping three early season games, the warriors of the Orange and Black came along in fine style to finish the campaign in a tie for first place in the Conference with New Bedford Textile Institute. The courtmen entered the important playoff tilt crippled by a February graduation which took Captain Frank Turano and forward Gus Charos. After a valiant attempt the tribe fell before the strong-driving New Bedford club who emerged from the contest as the 1950-51 Southern New England Coastal Conference Champions.

As concrete evidence of the caliber of the Indian team was the selection of four men from Bryant on the Conference All-Star Team. Named to the first team were Ken Gillis and Ralph Seaburg, while Charlie Voetsch and Frank Turano placed on the second squad.

This loss to New Bedford in the playoff game gave the varsity a season's record of fifteen victories against only five set-backs. In league competition, their record was six wins and three defeats.

TRACK

The track team concluded its very successful season with a sparkling victory over Arnold College at New Haven, Conn., by the score of 58-50. In earlier season encounters the Indians defeated R.I.C.E., Fairfield University, and finished in the middle position in a triangular meet with Hofstra College and the University of Bridgeport.

The highlight of the season for the cindermen of the Orange and Black was a trip to Philadelphia for the Penn Relays. Here they turned in a creditable performance competing with some of the better teams of the collegiate track world.

Captain Eddie Lott concluded the campaign with an undefeated record for both the quarter and the half mile. In his two seasons of collegiate competition, the blond speedster has been defeated but once.

The 1951 edition of the Indian track team will long be remembered for having been the first team in Bryant history to dig their spikes into the cinders at Franklin Field for the annual Penn Relays.

INTRAMURAL BASKETBALL

The Beta Iota Beta Rugmakers and the Newman Club were officially established as the winners in their respective Day and Night Men's Intra-mural Basketball League. In the playoffs which followed, the men from BIB swept two straight from Beta Sigma Chi and then went on to take two more from the Newman Club and with it the coveted league title.

The Rugmakers went through the regular season undefeated and boasted a record of nineteen wins. The four wins that were annexed in the playoffs gave the Ruggies an overall record breaking skein of twenty-three straight. This well-balanced quintet turned the Day League into a virtual runaway, with the only real competition arising in the form of Phi Sigma Nu and Beta Sigma Chi, who finished in a tie for second place.

The Newman Club had a more difficult time in taking first place in the Night League. The team's all-round class, however, rocketed them to the top with only three defeats against fourteen wins. The Governor Hall Indians finished in second place in the Night League.

INTRAMURAL SOFTBALL

Spirited competition was the keynote of the 1951 Intra-mural Softball season. Three powerful factors turned the league into a three-way fight for the league title. The Tau Epsilon entry led by pitcher Charlie Voetsch and Al Nelson, hustling catcher, fought off the fury of the Beta Iota Rugmakers and the men of Phi Sigma Nu. Ed Fenton of BIB developed into one of the league's best chuckers with the help of a sparkling defensive team led by playing manager Roger Bowlby. Phi Sigma Nu had such stalwarts as outfielder Joe Zanetti and infielders Frank Hemsing and Jimmy Dunn.

Space does not permit the acknowledgment of each individual player or of each team represented. However, the sincere effort on the part of the officials, managers, and players made this campaign the most successful ever programmed at Bryant.

Mr. Allan inaugurates
the softball season.
